To the Freeholders of the County of Kent.

GENTLEMEN,

MR. WILLIAMS, one of the Coroners for the County, having removed from Maidſtone to this Place, in order to officiate for this Diviſion, in the Room of Mr. KIRBY, lately deceaſed, I therefore decline any further Efforts to obtain that Office, and return unfeigned Thanks to my numerous Friends for their very great Exertions on my Behalf, and the Trouble given to them on the Occaſion.

I am,

GENTLEMEN,

Your moſt obedient,

And obliged humble Servant,

Greenwich, March 31, 1789.

Wm. MUNN
